✓ "IN THE LAND OF MANY TEMPLES."

Powers' Dorsey Educational Split Reel
—Released July 1.

We see the part of India which is famous for its temples. The old palace of the Nawabs, built in the Moorish style, is now used for government offices. Remains of a temple from the twelfth century are shown. We see a Mogul's fortress, and then the white marble shrines of various Mohammedan saints. The palaces of Akbar follow, with the tomb where the famous Kohinoor diamond once reposed. Some of the ancient Rock temples are seen, two thousand years old.
